TOM GOULD DISCOMFITED

THE CORONER'S JURY PRACTICALLY EXONERATES SELLING.

Of Course He Will Have to Awalt Indies. ment for Killing Wogan-How Would & P. M. Do as a Time for Shutting Gould's r After hearing some more testimony yesterday the Coroner's jury in the case of John J. Wogan, who was killed by Joseph Selling in

Tom Gould's dive on Christmas morning, de-tion, a voluminous verdict justifying Selling livered, as the result of two hours' deliberain a measure, and giving the city authorities some good advice.

The proceedings were listened to by the same crowd of ladies and gentlemen that attended the previous day's hearing. The first witness yesterday was Antonio Montruchio, an Italian newsdealer, whose stand is at Sixth avonue and Twenty-third treet. In testifying, through an interpreter, he was as esseful to preserve the amenities of politelife as the witnesses who had testified the day before in English. He said that shortly after 7 o'clock on Christmas morning he and a short signor coming out of Signor tionid's, followed by a large signor. The large signor grabbed the small signor by the thront. The small signor pulled out a revolver and shot the large signor, who then went back into the dive, while the short signor went around the corner. The large signor was three inches taller than the short signer.

John J. Hardy, a salesman, said that after drinking through the night at as many places as he could get into, he wandered into Tom tiould's. He didn't know the time, but it was dark when he went in and daylight when he came out. His departure was due to somebody's saying. "All hands out. We are going to put out the lights." While in the place to put out the lights. While in the pince he spent $5 or $6. He sat at the same table with Miss Adams, Mr. Joseph Selling, and Mr. Jenkins. The inter, he thought, was very drunk. He knew he was very drunk himself. He heard the report of a pistol, but did not see the encounter between Mr. Selling and Mr. Wogan. While both he and Mr. Jenkins were still drunk they went to the Jefferson Market jail and gave Mr. Selling assurances of their distinguished consideration, promising to see him through.

Policeman Hughes, in telling of Mr. Selling's arrest, omitted to "mister" him, but was careful to say "Mr." Gould. He said that when collared by him Selling said:

"Don't handle me roughly, officer. I give myself up. Here's my pistol."

Mr. Selling subsequently added. "I had to do him, or they would have done me," when on the way to the Thirtieth street station. Hughesmoralized ever the evil results of carrying a pistol, as instanced in what had a pistol they would have killed me."

He said afterward: "I hope Wogan isn't badly wounded, but it wasn't my fault."

Selling's collar was rumpled, there were marks on his neck, there was a discoloration under one eye, and a small scar on his forehead.

After Policeman Hughes had given his testo the Jefferson Market jail and gave Mr. Sell-under one eye, and a small scar on his forehead.

After Policeman Hughes had given his testimony the jury retired to a room so small that it could hardly hold the twelve good men and true. They, nevertheless, stayed there two hours manufacturing the following verdict:

"We, the jury in the case of John J. Wogan, find that the deconsed came to his death on Dec. 25, 1891, at 7:30 A. M., in the basement of 372 Sixth avonue, corner Twenty-third street, New York city, known as Tom Gould's place, by a pistol shot in the abdomen, inflicted at the hands of one Joseph Selling, and we further find that the said Selling was severely provoked to the act by said Wogan, and it is our opinion that the provocation was almost beyond the endurance of man, and we recommend to the city authorities the closing at an early lour in the evening at least of all places of this character habitually visited by men and women."

Selling's friends looked pleased at this find-

of this character nabitually visited by men and women."
Selling's friends looked pleased at this finding and the Gould faction disgusted, but when Coroner Messemer, in spite of it, decided to send Selling to the Tombs without bail the fould contingent looked pleased and Selling's friends disgusted. From the Coroners' office Selling was taken to Jefferson Market. Tom Gould, all of his bouncing gentlemen, and soveral dozen highly colored ladies were in court, and appeared to be greatly interested in the proceedings. Justice Hogan had a long private conversation with Assistant District Attorney Townsend, and committed the prisoner to the process without bail to wait the grand inquest.

NEW POLICE CAPTAINS.

by the Police Board To-day. The Police Commissioners, it is expected.

will announce to-day the names of three Sergeants promoted to be Captains and to take charge of the Seventh, the Twenty-fourth, and the Twenty-fifth precincts. The Twenty-fourth, with its handsome new station house in West Fixty-eighth street, is a new precinct that has not yet been equipped. There is considerable speculation as to who the pending appointments, have been made burden to them by delegations of the friends of the candidates. In answer to a requisition for eligibles from

Police Headquarters, Secretary Phillips of the Civil Service Bureau sent in these names:

Carles O. Sheidon. Sineteenth. 94.82
John Wiegand. Nisth. 94.30
The Commissioners are non-committal as to whom they will appoint, and speak of the appointments as if they were very small matters indeed. Commissioner Voorhis said yesterday that he did not know when the appointments would be made. There was a lot of important business to be transacted, and there incide not be time to attend to the Sergeants. The know-it-alls about Police Hoadquarters declare that the appointments are as good as made already. Commissioner MacLean, they say, will remain neutral, while each of the other Commissioners, Voorbis, Martin, and McLave, will select alman. Sergeant Devery will owe his gold shield to Commissioner Martin: Sergeant Price, who is attached to Inspector Williams's staff, will have to thank Commissioner McClave, and Sergeant Wiegand will got the support of Commissioner Voorbis. Besides the nine whose names were sent in by Secretary Phillips these Sergeants are eligible for promotion: John S. Herlithy, Fifth precinct: P. J. Lane. Ninestenth: John McMartins, Fourteenth: J. Donnohue, Seventh; Fred W. Martens, Thirty-fourth; John H. Grant, Iwenty-ninth; John McCarthy, Fourth; James J. Langan, Sixth; Walter Morris, Twenty-third; Andrew J. Thomas, Twenty-second; William Cruise, Eighth; Jeremiah Sweeney, First: Cancies Reinisch, Thirty-fourth; Michael E. Foody, Fifteenth: Thomas, Twenty-second; Michael Sheehan, Twenty-second; James J., Norton, Thirty-fifth; John McNamara, Eighth: Patrick Byrne, Ninth; G. I. Osiorne, Thirtieth; James Lynch, Sixteenth; John Matton, First, The Jowest percentage earned was 80.22, and the highest (8.85).

Assaulted His Wayward Wife,

Baidercort, Dec. 19.-James Curran, an engraver employed in New York, came to this city last night in search of his wayward wife. He found her in company with Margaret Conhors, on Main street. Curran entreated his Wile to return and live with him. She refused, and he assaulted her. Policeman Halpin ar-ived on the scene and arrested Curran. Mrs. Curran did not appear in court to-day to testify against her husband, but he was fined. The course were married in Meriden eight years aga when the groom was 17 and the bride 14 years of age. ROSY REPORTS FROM DIXIE.

The New South's Agricultural, Industrial, and Trade Progress,

BALTIMORE, Dec. 29,-The Manufacturers Record of this week. In its annual review of the industrial and general business interests of the South during the past year, shows that that section has made very solid and substantial progress free from any speculative operations, notwithstanding the general financial stringency and the low price of cotton. The decline in the price of cotton is largely offset by the great increase in the Fouth's grain erces, but cotton has so long been the staple crop that low prices cause a lack of confidence greater than is justified. This, howover, will pass away with the general improvement in business throughout the country. The production of corn in the South in 1891 was about 508,000,000 bushels, the largest crop ever raised, exceeding the crop of 1830 by 117,000,000 bushels, a gain of 16,000,000 bushels, it he wheat crop was about 59,000,000 bushels, a gain of 16,000,000 bushels cle over 1830, the total yield of wheat and corn for the year being about 627,000,000 bushels. Buring the year the South completed 28 blast furnaces, 10 rolling mills, I lessemer rail mill in Maryland, and I large Bessemer rail mill in Maryland, and I large Bessemer plant in Kentucky, all of which have either gone into operation or are about to commonee, it has also nearly finished two cotton its mills, has one tin plate mill nearly ready for operation, and is preparing to build a large tin plate mill, and steel works in Virginia with English and American capital. The low price of iron has enforced conomies in furnace management, and so reduced the cost of from making that Alabama furnaces are reported to be in stronger financial shape than a year ago, and to be making good profits even at the low figures prevailing. The production of coal in 1801 was about 23,000,000 tons, against 0,500,000 tons in 1832, or ten years ago. West Virginia alone now mines more coal than the whole South did ten years ago. The output of pig from in the South in 1801, as indicated by special reports to the Manufacturers' Record, was about 1,912,000 tons. The total assessed value of property as shown by official returns is $4,810,000,000, a gain of $220,000,000 over 1800, when the South first commenced to develop its findustrial interests. Every State in the South shows a large increase during the year in the value of property, the heaviest gain being in Texas. The South's foreign trade has developed very rapidly, and a large number of regular European steamship lines are now running from Newport News, Norfolk, and New Orleans. The total value of the exports from the entire country in November was $110,000,000, of which nearly one-half, or $53,300,000, was from Southern ports. For the eleven months ended Nov. 30, 1801, the value of foreign exports from the develop dev ever raised, exceeding the crop of 1800 by 117,000,000 bushels; the wheat crop was about Miss Parker Sava She Knows What She The two girls, Allee Parker, aged 17, and Dora Van Schoick, aged 16, who ran away from Chicago on Dec. 21, and who were arrested at 115 Waverley place, this city, were taken back to Chicago last night by Alice's father, A. F. Parker.

Superintendent Jenkins of the Gerry society was favorably impressed with the girls, and believes that beyond running away from home they have done nothing wrong. Both girls are stage struck and declars they will run away again as soon as they get a chance. While contined at the Children's Society's rooms Miss Parker gave the matron some interesting de-tails of the way the divorce laws work in talls of the way the divorce laws work in Chicago.

"I lave two fathers," she said, "and two mothers and two grandfathers and two grandmothers. My grandparents were divorced and each married again, and my father and mother were divorced, and now both of them have married again. They've all done as they liked, and I don't see why I shouldn't. I mean to go on the stage and no one can stop me."

Boston, Dec. 29.-John B. Leonard, an actor, was arrested at the Galety and Bijou Theatre to-day on a charge of bigamy. He is said to have married Jennie McLeod at Buffalo, N. Y., on Aug. 29, 1879. On April 12 of this year he married again in Boston. Miss Susan M. Fulton was the name of wife No. 2, and she and his first wife are actresses at the cheaper class of theatres. Leonard is said to be a member of a regularly organized company known as the "Two Irish Cuckoos." now on the road. His specialty is Irish character sketches, and he has been on the stage twelve years, during which time he has made quite a reputation. The complaint was made by the first wife, and the warrant for his arrest was issued at her instigntion. The second wife, who is at present in Boston, knows nothing of her husband's ilrst marriage. have married Jennie McLeod at Buffalo, N. Y.,

CROWDED RELLEVUE

Some Relief Got by Sending Patients to the Institutions on the Island.

The overcrowding in Bellevue Hospital was relieved somewhat on Monday and yesterday, when the boats began running as usual to Blackwell's Island. They do not run at all on Sunday, and that, Warden O'Rourke says, is what caused the crush. Of the 787 patients in the hospital on Monday, 130 were sent away the hospital on Monday, 130 were sent away during the day. About 40 of these were transferred to the various institutions on the islands, and the rest were well enough to go home. Sixty-one were admitted on Monday, making a total of 718 who spent Monday night in the institution. Of these 443 were male, adults, 207 female adults, 36 male children, and 32 female children. As there are 740 beds, there was room enough to accommodate everybody, and floor mattresses were generally dispensed with.

Pulmonary diseases of one sort and another still continue to be the most common.
